

IRB – Project Description

For all studies

Principle Investigator(s): Who is the PI and/or CoPIs?

Title of Research Project: Full title of research project.

Purpose: What is your research question? How may it further knowledge in the field?

Participants: Describe your participant groups and how they are fitting for the proposed research.

Location of survey: The geographic area and the location of your research tools.

Procedure: How will you perform your research? Why do you expect it to be valid?

Measures/Questionnaire: What tools will you use? Surveys, interviews, interventions, SPSS, etc.

Confidentiality: How will you assure that participant information will remain safe? Includes the results from measures and consent forms.

Risks: What risks might participants encounter from participating or if their confidentiality is compromised? Anxiety, fear, retribution, etc.

Benefits: Will participants gain any specific or individual benefit from participating?

